Amazing Nepal Tour - Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Kathmandu

Upon arrival at Kathmandu's Tribhuvan International Airport, you'll be greeted by our representative and transferred to your hotel. You can spend the rest of the day exploring the vibrant streets of Kathmandu, tasting the delicious local cuisine, and soaking in the cultural and historical richness of the city.

Day 2: Exploring Kathmandu

After breakfast at the hotel, we'll set off on a full-day tour of Kathmandu's cultural and historical landmarks. Our first stop will be at the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Pashupatinath Temple, a sacred Hindu temple located on the banks of the Bagmati River. Next, we'll visit Boudhanath Stupa, one of the largest stupas in the world and an important center of Tibetan Buddhism. We'll also explore Swayambhunath Stupa, also known as the Monkey Temple, located atop a hill in the western part of Kathmandu. We'll end the day with a visit to Kathmandu Durbar Square, the former royal palace of the Kathmandu Kingdom, which is home to numerous temples, shrines, and palaces.

Day 3: Day trip to Bhaktapur and Patan

After breakfast, we'll take a scenic drive to Bhaktapur, one of the three medieval city-states in the Kathmandu Valley. Bhaktapur is known for its exquisite woodcarvings, pottery, and thangka paintings. We'll stroll around the city's Durbar Square, visit the Golden Gate, and marvel at the 55-window Palace. Next, we'll head to Patan, another UNESCO World Heritage Site and the former capital of the Lalitpur Kingdom. Patan is renowned for its fine metalwork, stone sculpture, and traditional crafts. We'll visit the Patan Durbar Square, the Golden Temple, and the Mahaboudha Temple.

Day 4: Sunrise in Nagarkot

Today we'll leave Kathmandu and drive to Nagarkot, a scenic hill station located at an altitude of 2,175 meters. Nagarkot is famous for its panoramic views of the Himalayan range, including Mount Everest, as well as its breathtaking sunrise and sunset views. We'll arrive in Nagarkot in time to witness a beautiful sunrise over the snow-capped mountains. We'll spend the rest of the day exploring the picturesque surroundings, visiting local villages, and enjoying the fresh mountain air.

Day 5: Departure

After breakfast at the hotel, we'll drive back to Kathmandu and transfer you to the airport for your flight back home.
