Annapurna Circuit Trek - Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Kathmandu

Upon your arrival at Kathmandu, you will be met by a representative of your trekking agency and transferred to your hotel.

Day 2: Drive to Besishahar and then to Chamje (1,410m)

After breakfast, we drive to Besishahar and then take a jeep to Chamje. This is the starting point of our trek.

Day 3: Chamje to Dharapani (1,960m)

We trek through lush forests and several small villages to reach Dharapani, a village located at the intersection of the Annapurna Circuit and the Manaslu trek.

Day 4: Dharapani to Chame (2,710m)

We continue our trek through dense forests, waterfalls, and scenic mountain landscapes to reach the town of Chame, which is the administrative headquarters of the Manang district.

Day 5: Chame to Pisang (3,300m)

The trail climbs up to Pisang through the pine forest and offers stunning views of Annapurna II and Pisang Peak.

Day 6: Pisang to Manang (3,540m)

We continue our trek to Manang, where we will spend two nights to acclimatize. Along the way, we will pass through the village of Braga, which is famous for its ancient monastery.

Day 7: Rest day in Manang

This is a rest day in Manang. We will explore the village and enjoy the stunning views of the Annapurna range.

Day 8: Manang to Yak Kharka (4,110m)

We continue our trek from Manang to Yak Kharka, a small settlement located at the base of Thorong La Pass.

Day 9: Yak Kharka to Thorong Phedi (4,600m)

We trek to Thorong Phedi, the base camp for crossing the Thorong La Pass. This will be a challenging day as we gain significant elevation.

Day 10: Thorong Phedi to Muktinath (3,800m) via Thorong La Pass (5,416m)

We start our day early and cross the Thorong La Pass, the highest point of the trek. After crossing the pass, we will descend to Muktinath, a sacred Hindu and Buddhist pilgrimage site.

Day 11: Muktinath to Jomsom (2,720m)

We trek downhill to Jomsom, a popular town in the Annapurna region known for its apple orchards and the strong winds that blow through the Kali Gandaki Valley.

Day 12: Fly to Pokhara

We take an early morning flight from Jomsom to Pokhara, a beautiful lakeside city that is a popular tourist destination.

Day 13: Drive to Kathmandu

We take a scenic drive from Pokhara to Kathmandu, where we will spend our final night.

Day 14: Departure from Kathmandu

We will transfer you to the airport for your flight back home or to your next destination.
